Through the Gospel values of faith, hope, trust and love, we aim to recognise individuality and enable each other to fulfil our potential"

Position: KS1 Class Teacher
Start Date: September 2020
Pay Scale: Main Teachers pay scale

We are looking for an KS1 Class Teacher commencing September 2020. We welcome applications from Teachers of all religious denominations and encourage candidates to arrange a visit to our school.

St Cuthbert's is a forward thinking, caring and innovative Catholic Primary school with an exciting creative curriculum. Our staff are encouraged to use their talents and interests for the benefit of the whole child.

About us

- St Cuthbert's was last visited by Ofsted in 2008 when we received an Outstanding rating. We received an interim report in 2011 upholding the Outstanding rating.
- Our welcoming environment attracts highly qualified, professional and passionate staff for whom teamwork is a key to success.
- Our children experience a wide and varied curriculum with specialist teachers in PE, Art and French.
- Technology is also important to our school. We have touchscreens in every classroom, supporting our children with their learning and iPads which support classroom learning.
- We have a developing outdoor curriculum through our outdoor classroom and fire pit as well as our 'hub'.

We are proud to be able to offer you:

- Enthusiastic, friendly and polite children who have a desire for learning.
- Dedicated, progressive and supportive colleagues who like to have fun and work hard.
- Lots of support, access to excellent professional development and plenty of opportunity for leadership growth.
- A supportive PTA, who work hand in hand with our school.
